New York, 1 July, 1862.

81

Dear Garrison,

I have made arrangements with Putnam to send you "The Rebellion Record." The first three volumes, bound, will go to you in Standard bundle this week. The succeeding numbers will be sent as issued, and if you will keep them carefully, and send those of each volume, when complete, to me, in the Liberator bundle, I will get them exchanged for the bound copy, returning it to you in Standard bundle. I promised Putnam that you would give the work a generous notice, and publish the enclosed advertisement several times.

Yours, faithfully,

Oliver Johnson.

P. S. If, as I hope to do, I succeed in getting a free ticket to Boston and return, I shall probably go up to Boston from Providence Thursday night, in order to be with you at Framingham on the 4th. I shall, at any rate, go to Providence to-morrow night, not to return till next Monday night. I shall go away relying on a supply of copy from you for our printers for next week's inside. I hope you will send me a part of the report for our printers to work upon on Monday.